

THE MUSICIANS' COMPANY ARCHIVE

The John Clementi Collard Fellowship

Established in 1931 and endowed by John Clementi Collard (Master 1893-1894, 1899-1900 and briefly again in 1901 following the death of the then Master Sir John Stainer; Treasurer 1904-1918) to give practical assistance to a "...musician of proven ability (minimum age 28) but prevented by financial stringency from fully exercising and improving their talent". The Fellowship may be held for a maximum of three years subject to the discretion of the Court.
