Serenade, Op. 48

for orchestra

Serenade

- 1. Romance
- 2. Nocturne
- 3. Sapphic Ode
- 4. Llandaff

The Serenade includes extended arrangements of three pieces composed while an undergraduate student at the University of Hull. The song-like first movement was composed for piano in January 1970; the Nocturne, also for piano, was composed in January 1971. The last movement was for a mixed ensemble, and it prompted an arrangement of these three movements for an ensemble of six instruments. The sextet was reworked, and its musical material expanded for orchestra in 2023. The opening Romance is in a lyrical style, as are the succeeding movements. The Nocturne, except for a contrasting, rather gloomy, middle section, is largely through-composed and makes much of the rhythm of its first bar. The Sapphic Ode is based on a setting I made in 1985 of Sappho's poem Φαίνεται μοι κῆνος ἵσος θέοισιν, in which I tried to represent both the pitch accents and the quantitative metre of the Greek verse. It is scored for oboe, harp and strings. The finale consists of variations on a Welsh song 'Llandaff', collected in November 1897 by Kate Lee from Mr Edge, a gardener in Wells, Norfolk. It was published on page 16 of the first issue of the Journal of the Folk-Song Society in 1899. It is assigned the number 1718 in the Roud Folk Song Index.
