

The Joy that Never Ends

David Cooper 1990

Andantino

Soprano mf
We are his joy - , his glor - y - , his crown

Alto mf
We - his re - ward - his glo - ry - , his crown

4
S. mp
for a soul's health - a man is some times left on his own - ;

A. mp
for a soul's health - a man is on his - own - ;

7
S. p mf
but his sin is not al-ways the cause. Bliss is last - ing;

A. p mf
but his sin is - not the cause. Bliss is last - ing

11
S. p mf
pain is pass-ing It is not God's will that we should ling-er ov-er pain, but that

A. p mf
pain - pass ah - - - but that 16

S. f
we should pass ov-er it quick-ly to find joy that last and ne-ver ends, joy-

A. f
we - should pass ov - er it quick - ly to find joy - that lasts - and ne - ver

poco rit . . . A tempo

22

S. mp
- that ne - ver ends. It is God's will that we should re-joice with him

A. mp
ends - It - is God's - will - 25

S. in our sal - va - tion, and that we should be cheer'd and streng-then'd by it

A. - that we should re-joice in - our sal - va - ti - on,

28

S. p
He wants our soul to de - light in its sal - va - tion, through his grace.

A. p
He wants our soul to de - light in its sal - va - tion, through his grace.

32

S. solo tutti
For - we are the a - pple of his eye. He - de - lights in us - for -

A. solo tutti
Ah - - - He de - lights in - us - for - cresc

38

S. f ff
e-ver as we shall in him - by his grace by - his-grace by - his - grace

A. f ff
e-ver as we shall in - him by his - grace, as we shall in him, by his-grace

cresc ritenuto