

Julia Usher

ASOLANDO

for

FLUTE Solo

Primavera

1980

ASOLO

is a medieval fortified hill town at the foot of the Dolomites. Robert Browning had a house ther, and wrote a series of poems called 'Asolando'. This piece studies distances in a landscape.

It was first performed by David Haslam, in a BBC Young Composers' Forum broadcast

Preview File Only

A SOLANDO

An Italian Landscape for Solo Flute

Lontano Luminoso
non vibr
ppp
pp PPP whisper
mf
fast vibr
non vibr
mf

Attacca
Energico
f sfz
fsub.
ppp
non vibr

Tempo 2do
Attacca, ritmico
harsh
f f2
f2
ten

poca accel
poco accel

trump
nat
pp mp
p mf
vibr accell

Attacca
Tempo 2do
vibr
mf
f mf
f f2

uguale, rapido
f2
c r e s c