THE LIGHT GARDEN

(Bagh-e Nur)

'Finally, and in my case with an awe and almost with disbelief, we visited the memorial and tomb of Babur...It was built by Babur's grandson, Shah Jahan in 1640, and the tomb, which is black, pink and green marble and alabaster, by Abdul Rahman about 1880. The site is an old and disused garden out of sight of the city, on a hillside above the Kabul river with mulberry trees and one or two enormous planes of such a girth and with such limbs they may have stood there since Babur's death. The mulberries probably date from 1640...the memorial is really a mosque, open on three sides like the simple wooden mosques in many villages. The material is Kandahar marble. The inscription over the main entrance reads as follows:

ONLY THIS MOSQUE OF BEAUTY, THIS TEMPLE OF NOBILITY, CONSTRUCTED FOR THE PRAYER OF SAINTS AND THE EPIPHANY OF CHERUBS, WAS FIT TO STAND IN SO VENERABLE A SANCTUARY AS *THIS HIGHWAY OF ARCHANGELS, THIS THEATRE OF HEAVEN, THE LIGHT
GARDEN* OF THE GODFORGIVEN ANGEL KING WHOSE REST IS IN THE GARDEN OF HEAVEN, ZAHIRUDDIN MUHAMMAD BABUR THE CONQUEROR.
(* Afghanistan*)

There is not much more to be said about the grave of Babur. There were Persian graffiti carved with knife points in the lower trunks of the big planes, a soldier in khaki was reaching into the shadows for mulberries, an officer had slung his hammock for the afternoon between the branches of a plane.....'
