

FAR AWAY AND DIMLY PEALING

Gavin Bryars

Cause sounds to occur at least one mile from the performer.

Do not use explosives and do not allow someone else to make the sound for you.

The sound should be able to be heard by the performer

(the only attempt I ever made at this was thwarted by an express train severing the means whereby the sound was to be made).

Preview File Only