

- . a solo performer using any instrument, object or set of processes should respond intuitively to the image & the divisions of the image.
- . aspects such as changes in colour tone, point of light and the softness of the overall image should inform the interpretation.